

Did you know that in the 112th Congress (2011),
women hold only 16.7% of the seats??

Running and Winning: Getting Started

A Workshop for High School Girls

Be a part of an exciting program to learn more about the challenges and rewards of holding public office.

The League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe is presenting its Running and Winning workshop. Female politicians will guide small group discussions during which you will interview local and state female elected officials and learn about their experiences in seeking and holding public office.

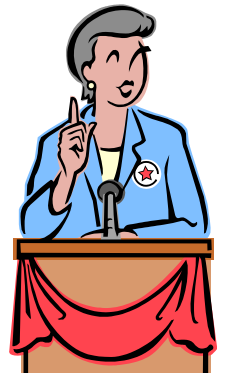

- ❖ Interviews with elected women officials such as councilwomen, judges, and congresswomen.
- ❖ Exploration of full-time and part-time leadership positions in government.
- ❖ Develop the skills needed to run for office such as networking, analyzing issues, and public speaking.

Friday, March 25, 2011
9:00 am to 3:30 pm
at The Tompkins Center
Windmill Pointe Park
Grosse Pointe Park

Admission is free and breakfast and lunch are provided by the League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe Education Fund

MUST BE PRE-REGISTERED

The League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe believes that one way to reach greater representational parity for women is to develop leadership potential in our young women.
